7th DAY: 23/07/17 FULL DAY TOUR TO PALEOKASTRITSA

After breakfast departure to Paleokastritsa. Paleokastritsa is located on the northwest coast of Corfu. It is considered to be one of the most beautiful villages of Corfu. It consists of six different small coasts and rocky beaches with crystal blue sea water. From almost each coast small boats can take you a boat trip to the caves that can be found along its coastline to admire the crystal water and the beauty of the nature. There are two most known and important caves that you will be visiting. The first one is called Nausica Cave, named after the daughter of the King of the Phaeacians. It is said that she found in there Odysseus and nursed him back to health. The second most worth seeing one is called Blue Eye due to a patch of incredibly blue water which resembles an eye. Above the main coast on a hillside full of wild trees and olive trees facing the deep blue sea stand the Monastery of Theotokos. The Monastery was built around 12th century and inside in one of the cells a museum has been founded with Byzantine and post Byzantine icons. In the main courtyard of the monastery there is also an old well where you can throw a coin and make a wish which with the blessings of Virgin Mary Theotokos it will probably come true. Free time for swimming and lunch at your own. Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight.

8th DAY: 24/07/17 CORFU – CITY TOUR IN THE TOWN

After breakfast we drive to the old town, along the sweep of Garitsa bay, admiring the important part of the island defense against the numerous invasions, the old Venetian Fortress. We stop in the old town for a pleasant walk in the shopping center, one of the biggest squares in Europe, the famous Esplanade and the elegant Liston, which access in the past was only allowed to the aristocracy of Corfu, written down in the “Libro d’Oro”. You will discover all the interesting sites like the Saint Spyridon church, protector of the island, the interesting municipality and the charming narrow alleyways of the Old Venetian Town. Continue to Kanoni, where you can admire the famous Pontikonissi (Mouse Island), which according to the legend was formed when the ship, which was taking Odysseus to Ithaki, was turned to stone by Poseidon. On the tiny island in the foreground of Pontikonissi, is the attractive monastery of Vlacherna linked to the island by a causeway. After a short drive we arrive in the pretty village of Gastouri. On the crown of the hill nearby is Corfu’s most famous building, the Achilleon Palace, constructed in 1892 for the Empress Elisabeth of Austria. Return to the hotel.
